Unreasonable things and pointless things do not usually call for so much attention.

THE defeat of Mr. Kenna was largely due to his own course in politics. The time was when the dashing young statesman was the most popular man in West Virginia, and he could be elected to Congress in his own district by a majority of seven thousand. Then the Democratic party took him up and made a leader of him. That spoiled him. Under his leadership Democratic majorities have dwindled away to nothing. In the quiet retirement of private life Mr. Kenna will have time to think over the causes that brought about his political downfall. He knows them.

A Ringing Rebuke.

The ringing rebuke administered by Senator Maxwell to the revolutionists at Charleston yesterday deserves to be repeated all over this State. They were the words of a man with the courage of his convictions.

"Not in a single instance," said Senator Maxwell, "is General Goff attacked for fraud. When it shall be shown that any of these votes are stolen the man who keeps them is a thief and a robber. I will say to 'the gentleman from Wayne that when he attempts to throw out 1,500 votes because four are barrass the boys at Charleston. attacked, he puts himself in the position of a thief and a robber."

That is just the amount of it. That is just the position the Democrats in the the great newspapers of the country, has Judge Fleming has never alleged fraud "Is marriage a Failure?" As fully a column of the space alluded to was occupied by General Sprigg's speech, that gentleman will feel complimented when he reads in his party's organ that he did not utter a word of reason or make a point of law.

The usual introductory matter telegraphed by the editor of the INTELLICENCER, who is in Charleston, was printed separately, and was not a part of the report of the proceedings. It was a comment on the general situation after the developments of the day, and, judgthe developments of the day, and, judg-

Sits:—It is but's imple justice to state that the bill for the establishment of a Reform School, which has just passed the Senate, was drafted by Hon, George E. Price and has twice before been passed by the Senate.

After correspondence with leading citizens over the State relative to the establishment of an Industrial School for the purpose of "forming" good habits as well as reforming bad habits, the W. C. T. U. adjusted itself to the drift of public sentiment and decided to aim at that which seemed practicable, and have fallen into line to secure the passage of the bill introduced by Mr. Price.

I make this statement that honor may be given to whom honor is due. Our only regret is that the spirit of caste, which is not the spirit of Christ, has crept into the bill since its introduction into the Senate.

The above appears as part of the utterance of Rev. Dr. Cushing, in his lecture to young men.

Please say for a reader the Doctor should have made one further statement, that is this: "When a popular preacher injects popular partisan political demagogy into a speech to young men from a pulpit he makes an ass of himself."
